Thank You
Often we receive news in the offering plate. Thank you for keeping us informed. Please sign these notes so we can contact you if we have questions or need additional information.

Progressive Dinner
On September 20, the Depot/History Museum, Library, & TVT are jointly sponsoring a progressive dinner beginning with appetizers at the Depot, dinner at the Tennessee Valley Theater, and dessert at the Library. There will be two settings: 4:30 p.m. and 6 p.m. Tickets are on sale now at the Library for $25 each. Please support the three jewels of Spring City. This will benefit each equally.

Today’s Scripture
Matthew 18: 21-35 (NRSV)

21Then Peter came and said to him, “Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?” 22Jesus said to him, “Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times.

23-For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves. 24When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him; 25and, as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, and payment to be made. 26So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.’ 27And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. 28But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and seizing him by the throat, he said, ‘Pay what you owe.’ 29Then his fellow slave fell down and pleaded with him, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you.’ 30But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he would pay the debt. 31When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place. 32Then his lord summoned him and said to him, ‘You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. 33Should you not have had mercy on your fellow slave, as I had mercy on you?’ 34And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he would pay his entire debt. 35So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart.”

ANNOUNCEMENTS

ALTERN FLOWERS today are in honor of our Church Family. Thank you for your prayers, cards and personal expressions of caring. You stopped me from wasting this time of my life. I was sitting in the recliner, waiting for the next surgical procedure to cure me. In over four months, none of them did and all the while I was sick physically and mentally. I very recently realized that God’s answer to all your prayers and mine was not to cure me, but rather to give me the drive to cope with my disability and get back to leading a productive life. I am deeply blessed by a loving God, my precious family and all you wonderful friends.

In His Service...Chuck

Eve Allison, James Couch, Joyce Eicher, Lorene Fourman, Helen Miko, Bill Scholz

SIGN-UP for the Pictorial Directory. Photography dates are October 8, 9, 10, 11. There will be someone on the front porch before and after the service today. Next Sunday will be the last sign-up and it will be set up in the Family Life Center after the service during Homecoming. We want everyone’s picture in the directory so if there is someone you do not know, you may check your directory and put a name with that face you see on Sunday morning.

Please remember the first of every month to call with an update if you wish to remain on the prayer list.
