TODAY’S SCRIPTURE

1 KINGS 19:1-15 (NRSV)

1Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. "Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "So may the gods do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life like the life of one of them by this time tomorrow." "Then he was afraid; he got up and fled for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongs to Judah; he left his servant there. "But he himself went a day’s journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. He asked that he might die: "It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life, for I am no better than my ancestors." "Then he lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep. Suddenly an angel touched him and said to him, "Get up and eat." "He looked, and there at his head was a cake baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again. "The angel of the LORD came a second time, touched him, and said, "Get up and eat, otherwise the journey will be too much for you." "He got up, and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God.

At that place he came to a cave, and spent the night there. Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

"I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away." "He answered, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the LORD, for the LORD is about to pass by." Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence.

Then Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

"I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away." "He answered, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram."
ANNOUNCEMENTS

ALTAR FLOWERS today are placed by Ernestine Simpson in loving memory of her father, Milford Simpson.

STAFF/PARISH RELATIONS COMMITTEE - There will be a called meeting immediately following this morning’s worship service in the Parlor.

NO BIBLE STUDY / NO YOUTH this evening so that families can celebrate Father’s Day together.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE - There are copies of Reports and various publications from this year’s conference displayed on the side entrance of the church. A few extra copies of “The Call” and the Approved Budget Report are available as well. Please stop by and take a look at the news and reports from each day of the conference.

UMW FIELD TRIP - The UMW Ladies are going on a field trip / Shopping Spree to Pigeon Forge on Monday, July 12th. The church bus will leave the parking lot at 8:00 a.m. They will stop for lunch and the trip will last a full day. A sign-up sheet is posted on UMW bulletin board.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL - We are setting sail on a High Seas Adventure on Monday, June 21st to explore the Mighty Love of God, with fun filled activities, lessons and bible stories. “All children ages 3 years to 5th grade are welcome!”

Don’t miss their VBS program presented on next Sunday morning!
