TODAY’S SCRIPTURE
Ephesians 4: 1-16 NRSV

1 I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy 2 of the calling to which you have been called,
3 with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one
4 another in love,
5 making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond
6 of peace.
7 There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the 8 one hope of your calling,
9 one Lord, one faith, one baptism,
10 one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in 11 all.
12 But each of us was given grace according to the measure
13 of Christ’s gift.
14 Therefore it is said, “When he ascended on high he made 15 captivity itself a captive; he gave gifts to his people.” 16 (When it says, “He ascended,” what does it mean but that he had 17 also descended into the lower parts of the earth?)
18 He who descended is the one who ascended far above all 19 the heavens, so that he might fill all things.)
20 The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some 21 prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, 22 to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the 23 Church, until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge 24 of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of 25 Christ, to the��pointing to the whole body, joined and knit together by every 26 ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working 27 together.
28 But speaking the truth in love, we must grow up in every way
29 into him who is the head, into Christ, 30 from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every 31 ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working
32 properly, promotes the body’s growth in building itself up in love.
