TODAY’S SCRIPTURE
EPHESIANS 4:25-5:2 (RSV)

25 So then, putting away falsehood, let all of us speak the truth to our neighbors, for we are members of one another.
26 Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger.
27 and do not make room for the devil.
28 Thieves must give up stealing; rather let them labor and work honestly with their own hands, so as to have something to share with the needy.
29 Let no evil talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building up, as there is need, so that your words may give grace to those who hear.
30 And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption.
31 Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice,
32 and be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you.

1 Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children,
2 and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Thank you to everyone for your thoughts and prayers during my mother’s illness and ultimate passing. She was only suppose to live for 3 months but surpassed that by 1 1/2 years. Mom passed away on her 91st birthday, and that was the best present she could have received - to be with God and my dad. Your sympathy cards and memorial gifts were greatly appreciated and comforted our whole family. Thank you for being such a wonderful and loving church family.

Frank, Vickie, Ashley & Cynthia Snyder
