TODAY’S SCRIPTURE
Ruth 1:1-18 (NRSV)
1 In the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land, and a certain man of Bethlehem in Judah went to live in the country of Moab, he and his wife and two sons.
2 The name of the man was Elimelech and the name of his wife Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion; they were Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Judah.
3 They went into the country of Moab and remained there.
4 But Elimelech, the husband of Naomi, died, and she was left with her two sons.
5 These took Moabite wives; the name of the one was Orpah and the name of the other Ruth. When they had lived there about ten years,
6 both Mahlon and Chilion also died, so that the woman was left without her two sons and her husband.
7 Then she started to return with her daughters-in-law from the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that the LORD had considered his people and given them food.
8 So she set out from the place where she had been living, and she and her two daughters-in-law, and they went on their way to go back to the land of Judah.
9 But Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go back each of you to your mother’s house. May the LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me.
10 The LORD grant that you may find security, each of you in the house of your husband."
11 Then she kissed them, and they wept aloud.
12 They said to her, "No, we will return with you to your people."
13 But Naomi said, "Turn back, my daughters, why will you go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb that they may become your husbands?" No, my daughters, it has been far more bitter for me than for you, because the hand of the hand of the Lord has gone back to his people and to his gods; return after your sister-in-law.
14 Then they wept aloud again. Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.
15 So she said, "See, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; return after your sister-in-law."
16 But Ruth said, "Do not press me to leave you or to turn back from following you! Where you go, I will go; where you lodge, I will lodge; your people shall be my people, and your God my God.
17 Where you die, I will die—there will I be buried. May the LORD do thus and so to me, as has gone back to his people and to his gods; return after your sister-in-law."
18 When Naomi saw that she was determined to go with her, she said no more to her.

THANK YOU CHURCH FAMILY

To Pastor Dale and all the Angels at this church: Words cannot express the awe and thankfulness we have experienced all the love, prayers, cards, and gifts that have been given to us during this very difficult time. We will never know how much your precious grandchild endured to cause her to take her life, but we feel she is in our Savior’s loving arms. Every time we enter this building, we too feel the Arms of God around us. What wonderful friends we have. May God continue to bless each and everyone of you! Love, The Hanson Family
