The man who does not learn to wait upon the Lord and have his thoughts molded by Him will never possess that steady purpose and calm trust, which is essential to the exercise of wise influence upon others, in time of crisis and difficulty. -Copied

TODAY’S SCRIPTURE
Jeremiah 8:18-9:1 (NRSV)

18 My joy is gone, grief is upon me, my heart is sick.
19 Hark, the cry of my poor people from far and wide in the land: "Is the LORD not in Zion? Is her King not in her?" ("Why have they provoked me to anger with their images, with their foreign idols?
20 "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.
21 For the hurt of my poor people I am hurt, I mourn, and dismay has taken hold of me.
22 Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then has the health of my poor people not been restored?

1 "O that my head were a spring of water, and my eyes a fountain of tears, so that I might weep day and night for the slain of my poor people!

WELCOME TO HOMECOMING 2013: You are invited to join us for lunch in the Family Life Center following the worship service today.

THE FLOWERS ON THE ALTAR TODAY are in celebration of John and Sam Hanson’s wedding anniversary.

THANK YOU! Once again I want to thank you for the visits in the nursing home while I was recuperating from my illness, the prayers, flowers, cards, CD’s and a song or two made my stay there so much more enjoyable. The food and phone calls with offers to cook for us were a blessing. Thank you, Pastor Dale, for being with us the morning I was hospitalized. Your prayers and assurance meant so much to us. For 19 years all you have been so good to us. Your encouragement and love shown is truly the family of God. Him through you. May God bless each and everyone. - Nancy & Chuck McIlwain
