So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!
All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us.
So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.
For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

2014 INTERNATIONAL PEACEMAKER
First Presbyterian Church Sunday, September 27, 2014 6 - 8 p.m.

First Presbyterian Church, Spring City, would like to invite you to join us for an evening with International Peacemaker, Rosario Jocobal Gallegos Viesca. This year, we are fortunate to have her come to Spring City and tell us about her ministry at the border of Mexico and the United States.

Jocobal (Joca) is the Mexican Coordinator with Frontera de Cristo, a Presbyterian border ministry located in the sister cities of Douglas, Arizona, and Agua Prieta, Sonora. She is well acquainted with issues of violence, poverty, trade, health care and family life faced by these two cities on the U.S./Mexico border.

Joca graduated from the Presbyterian Seminary in Mexico City and served in the Presbyterian of Chihuahua. She worked alongside her father in Hispanic ministry in South Carolina for 3 years, then returned to Mexico to develop her own border ministry. She is a fourth generation Presbyterian, something that is uncommon in northern Mexico.

Following her presentation in the sanctuary, you will have an opportunity to speak with her personally and enjoy apple dumplings and coffee in Hiley Hall.
