FROM SAGER BROWN MINISTRIES TEAM: Please excuse our delay in expressing our gratitude to the members of Spring City UMC in providing 84 health kits for UMCOR. Our Brown was it our pleasure to welcome Shirley Corbin on our travel to Louisiana with the mission team from First UMC, Oak Ridge. With your help, we delivered a total of 213 health kits to UMCOR. Thank you for your support.

-Sager Brown Mission Team, First UMC, Oak Ridge, TN

THANK YOU SPRING CITY UMC FRIENDS & FAMILY: Thank you for your outpouring of love in the form of prayers, gifts, cards, and back-to-school supplies. We are so grateful that the Collins Family has found a home full of such thoughtful and compassionate members. Your love and prayers have been felt, and we look forward to visiting all of you during the holidays. We’ll keep your church in our thoughts and prayers as well. Thank you again for your generous gestures! Love, Natalie and Isaac

THANK YOU so much for the gift of appreciation that was presented to me last week by Walt Morse, Staff Parish Relations Team Chairman. Thank you, too, for the opportunity to work in the church office for what will soon be 5 years. -Sharon B.

SUNDAY NURSERY VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: If you would like to help with the nursery during Sunday morning worship services for 2016, please contact Peggy Bowman at 365-7239 or the church office at 365-6324. We need at least two volunteers for each Sunday and plan to have each one scheduled for 4 - 7 Sundays during the year. Please remember that this is not limited to females. It would be great to have some men help out, as well.

EVERYONE IS INVITED TO BIBLE STUDY tonight at 6 o’clock as Pastor Tony continues to lead the study of Christianity and World Religions.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN (UMW) meet Tuesday, November 3, at 6:30 p.m., in the Fellowship Hall. All women in our church are invited to attend.

NEXT NOEL PRACTICES will begin Wednesday, November 4, in the Family Life Center from 5-6 PM.

THE FAMILY LIFE CENTER, FELLOWSHIP HALL, AND SANCTUARY will be closed Friday, November 6th (setup for meeting), and Saturday, November 7th, for the District UMW Conference Meeting. Registration is at 9 a.m.

TRINKETS AND TREASURES UPDATE: Thank you for continuing to save your treasures for the youth rummage sale. This sale is the major funding project for the 2016 Resurrection trip. Please call 865-271-8301 to arrange pickup for items you cannot deliver on November 13. If you want to consign children’s clothing, you may pick up tags and instructions from Susan Collins or the church office.

NOTE: Please bring grocery sacks to the church for the rummage sale.

Scripture Reading

John 11:1-45 (NKJV)

> Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha. It was that Mary who anointed the Lord with fragrant oil and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick. Therefore the sisters sent word to Him, saying, "Lord, behold, he for whom You love is sick." When Jesus heard that, He said, "This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it." Therefore, since He loved him, He permitted him to be in his infirmity.

> Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. So, when He heard that he was sick, He stayed two days in the place where He was. Then after this He said to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again." The disciples said to Him, "Rabbi, it is already four months since it is necessary for seed to be sown, and you still go up there?" Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. But if one walks at night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him." These things He said, and after this He said to them, "Our friend Lazarus sleeps, but I go that I may wake him up." The disciples said to Him, "Lord, if he sleeps he will get well." However, Jesus spoke of his death, but they thought that He was speaking of rest in sleep. Then Jesus said to them plainly, "Lazarus is dead. And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, that you may believe. Nevertheless let us go to him." Then Thomas, who is called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with Him." So when Jesus came, he found that he had already been in the tomb four days.

> Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles away. And many of the Jews had come to Mary and comforted her concerning her brother. Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met Him, but Mary was still in the house. Then Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever You ask of God, God will give You." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." Martha said to Him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live. And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?" She said to Him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that You are the Christ, the Son of God, who is to come into the world." And when she had said these things, she wept aloud. So the Jews said to her, "See how she weeps aloud!" For she said, "The Teacher has come and is calling for you." As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly and came to Him. Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but was in the place where it was that He had called the dead man. Then the Jews who were with her in the house and comforting her, when she saw that Mary rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, "She is going to the tomb to weep there." Then, when Mary came where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at His feet, saying to Him, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died." Therefore, when Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her weeping, He groaned in the spirit and was troubled. And He said, "Where have you left him?" They said to Him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus wept. And the Jews said, "See how He loved him!" And some of them said, "Could not this Man, who opened the eyes of the blind, also have kept this man from dying?" Then Jesus, again groaning in Himself, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to Him, "Lord, by this time there is a bad smell because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did not I say to you, that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?" Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was lying. And Jesus lifted up His eyes and said, "Father, I thank You that You have heard Me. And I know that You always hear Me; but because of this thing that I speak, all men know that You are from God and that You have done these things." These things He said, and after that He cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth!" And he who had died came out bound hand and foot with a winding sheet, and his face was wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Loose him, and let him go." Then many of the Jews who had come to Mary and had seen the things Jesus did, believed in Him.

> Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha. It was that Mary who anointed the Lord with fragrant oil and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick. Therefore the sisters sent word to Him, saying, "Lord, behold, he for whom You love is sick." When Jesus heard that, He said, "This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it." Therefore, since He loved him, He permitted him to be in his infirmity.

> Now there was a certain rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen and fared sumptuously every day. But there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, full of sores, who was laid at his gates, desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man’s table. Moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. So it was that the beggar died, and was carried by angels to Abraham’s bosom. The rich man also died and was buried. And being in torments in Hades, he lift up his eyes and saw Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

> Then he cried and said, "Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame." But Abraham said, "Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted and you are tormented.
