SCRIPTYRE READING
EXODUS 3:1-5, 7-8, 10-12; 4:1-4, 20 (NRSV)

1 Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God.
2 There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed.
3 Then Moses said, "I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up."
4 When the LORD saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here I am."
5 Then he said, "Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground."
6 Then the LORD said, "I have heard their cry of woe, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.
7 So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt."
8 But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?"
9 He said, "I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain."
10 Then Moses answered, "But suppose they do not believe me or listen to me, but say, 'The LORD did not appear to you.'"
11 And he said, "Throw it on the ground." So he threw the staff on the ground, and it became a snake; and Moses drew back from it.
12 He said, "Reach out your hand, and seize it by the tail.”—so he reached out his hand and grasped it, and it became a staff in his hand—
13 Then Moses answered, "But suppose they do not believe me or listen to me, but say, 'The LORD did not appear to you.'"
14 The LORD said to him, "What is that in your hand?" He said, "A staff." And he said, "Throw it on the ground.” So he threw the staff on the ground, and it became a snake; and Moses drew back from it.
15 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Reach out your hand, and seize it by the tail”—so he reached out his hand and grasped it, and it became a staff in his hand—
16 So Moses took his wife and his sons, put them on a donkey, and went back to Jethro, the priest of Midian.
17 He said to his wife, "I am going to the land of Egypt, to see what is happening to my people the Israelites; and I will come back to you."
