SCREPTURE READING

HEBREWS 11:1-3; 8-16 (NRSV)

1 Therefore, brothers and sisters, holy partners in a heavenly calling, consider that Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession,
2 was faithful to the one who appointed him, just as Moses also “was faithful in all God’s house.”
3 Yet Jesus is worthy of more glory than Moses, just as the builder of a house has more honor than the house itself.

8 do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, as on the day of testing in the wilderness,
9 where your ancestors put me to the test, though they had seen my works
10 for forty years. Therefore I was angry with that generation, and I said, ‘They always go astray in their hearts, and they have not known my ways.’
11 As in my anger I swore, ‘They will not enter my rest.’”
12 Take care, brothers and sisters, that none of you may have an evil, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God.
13 But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called “today,” so that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.
14 For we have become partners of Christ, if only we hold our first confidence firm to the end.
15 As it is said, “Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion.”
16 Now who were they who heard and yet were rebellious? Was it not all those who left Egypt under the leadership of Moses?
