ANNOUNCEMENTS

FLOWERS IN THE SANCTUARY today are placed by the Theresa Lisa Crafters in memory of Theresa Lisa who had the inspiration to start the Prayer Shawl Ministry eight years ago and also in memory of those members who have passed: Agnes Maddux, Rosalind Booker, and Maggie Tammack.

THANK YOU! We honestly do not know what we would have done without our church family’s support during this time of grief. To all of you that had in your thoughts and prayers, sent cards, texts, phone calls, visited, brought food and other items, gave memorials, sent flowers, shared your stories of Chadley or your words of comfort, we thank you from the bottom of our hearts. Our family finds healing in God’s tender embrace and in knowing that others continue to remember and care. Please continue to pray for our family as we adjust to this new life.

TODAY IS PEANUT BUTTER SUNDAY! If you forgot your peanut butter but still want to help, just drop a monetary donation in the offering plate and someone will purchase peanut butter for you. We are grateful to everyone who contributed peanut butter to help Our Daily Bread feed the hungry in our community. May God bless you for your generosity!

When he entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, “By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?”

Jesus said to them, “I will also ask you one question; if you tell me the answer, then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things.

Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?” And they argued with one another, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say to us, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’

But if we say, ‘Of human origin,’ we are afraid of the crowd; for all regard John as a prophet.

So they answered Jesus, “We do not know.” And he said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

What do you think? A man had two sons; he went to the first and said, ‘Son, go and work in the vineyard today.’

He answered, ‘I will not’; but later he changed his mind and went.

The father went to the second and said the same; and he answered, ‘I go, sir’; but he did not go.

Which of the two did the will of his father?” They said, “The first.” Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you.

For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him; and even after you saw it, you did not change your minds and believe him.
