- Own your life
- Carry some of the load of people's crosses
- Treat people as you want to be treated
- Own up to your weakness
- But work on strength (Luke 7:9)
- Every day is a gift
- Rest in the Lord and rejoice in the Lord.
- You are loved!
Dear Friends,

Things are changing all around us. Leaves are beginning to turn. Some have already fallen. The temperatures are changing. Baseball season is fading fast, along with the Braves. Football is here. It is a great time of year.

I used to know a lady in Pearsburg, VA, who lived diagonally across the street from me. She had two small trees in her yard. Each day, as long as the weather was warm, she would sit on her front porch and read. She also kept an eye on the neighborhood. Every time a leaf from one of her trees would fall, she would go out into the yard and pick it up and put it in a garbage bag. If a leaf stayed on the ground for more than a minute, it was very unusual.

She also kept track of how many leaves from other people’s yard blew into her yard. Two of her neighbors, including me, had large oak and maple trees in their yards. Two or three times a week she would call to say that I needed to come rake my leaves out of her yard.

In the midst of all of this turmoil, we find a place of peace when we spend some time daily seeking God’s will. Whether you spend time in prayer, reading the scripture or a devotional book, or listening to someone on the radio or TV, keep taking that time to seek God’s will before you make the next step. It will not keep the events from coming, but it will help you manage how you deal with them.

Oh, and by the way, make sure that you come to church on Sundays. It is a place where you can talk with others about your life. It is a place where you can find peace in worship. It is a place where God’s word will be read and where we can reflect on the Word. We will be surrounded by the Holy Spirit who will bring forth fruit in our lives and help us to find peace.

Shalom,

Pastor Tony

Life is like this story. We wish we could keep all of the things in our life neatly under control. Yet, other things happen that disturb our orderly vision. Events catch up with us. Things that are out of our control swirl around us, leaving us dizzily trying to figure out what to do next.

VOLUNTEER NEEDED: If you would like to volunteer to fill in at the church office in order for the secretary to be able to take vacation and/or medical appointments, please call 936-6324 for more information. Thank you!

Happy Birthday to Ruth Smith Huskins, who celebrated her 102nd birthday with her pastor, Dr. Tony Collins of the Spring City United Methodist Church. Ruth is a 78 year member of her church. Ruth was born in Rhea Springs on September 24, 1912. She is the oldest living graduate of Spring City High School. Ruth is lovingly taken care of by her many nieces and nephews.

Beth Green, wife of Cleveland District Superintendent, Joe Green, was the guest speaker at LDL, Tues., Sept. 16. She gave an amusing talk on “just being a woman” and also sang and played the guitar.
Patty Crowder led the devotional, which is the highlight of LDL for most everyone. After the devotions, lunch is served by caterer, Cookie Smith.
The next LDL for ladies, 60 and up, is Tues., Oct. 21, at noon, in the Family Life Center.

Following the 11 a.m. worship service, on Homecoming Sunday, September 14, our church family gathered for a covered dish lunch in the Family Life Center. There was a wide variety of delicious food that was enjoyed by all, along with good fellowship.

We are thankful for God’s blessings on our homecoming celebration!

Dear Friends - Thanks so much for the DVDs and newsletters. They mean so much to be able to keep up with you all in that way. Thanks for making me feel special.

Best wishes to Rev. Collins.

Always,
Irene Alexander

Thank You!
