SCRIPTURE READING HEBREWS 11:1-3; 8-16 (NRSV)

¹Therefore, brothers and sisters, holy partners in a heavenly calling, consider that Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession,

² was faithful to the one who appointed him, just as Moses also "was faithful in all God's house."

³ Yet Jesus is worthy of more glory than Moses, just as the builder of a house has more honor than the house itself.

⁸ do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, as on the day of testing in the wilderness,

⁹ where your ancestors put me to the test, though they had seen my works

¹⁰ for forty years. Therefore I was angry with that generation, and I said, 'They always go astray in their hearts, and they have not known my ways.'

¹¹ As in my anger I swore, 'They will not enter my rest."

¹² Take care, brothers and sisters, that none of you may have an evil, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God.

¹³ But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today," so that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.

¹⁴ For we have become partners of Christ, if only we hold our first confidence firm to the end.

¹⁵ As it is said, "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion."

¹⁶ Now who were they who heard and yet were rebellious? Was it not all those who left Egypt under the leadership of Moses?
