TODAY'S SCRIPTURE Luke 10:1-11, 16-20 (NRSV)

¹ After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go.
² He said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest."
³ Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves.
⁴ Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road.
⁵ Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this house!'
⁶ And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you.
⁷ Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the laborer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house.
⁸ Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you;
⁹ cure the sick who are there, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.'
¹⁰ But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say,
¹¹ 'Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near.'
¹⁶ "Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me."
¹⁷ The seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!"
¹⁸ He said to them, "I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning.
¹⁹ See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you.
²⁰ Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."
